NOTICE OF CONTINUING OBLIGATION TO INFORM COURT OF CHILD’S RESIDENCE

THE FOLLOWING NOTICE IS BEING PROVIDED TO:

The Defendant, namely, _____, a child DOB _____ Age: _____

The Defendant’s Parent (including any person standing in parental relation, a managing conservator, or a custodian), namely, _____ Relationship to Defendant _____

ATTENTION: Pursuant to Texas law, Article 45.057(j), Code of Criminal Procedure, you are being providing written notice of the following:

1. A child and parent required to appear before the Court have an obligation to provide the Court in writing with the current address and residence of the child.
2. The obligation does not end when the child reaches age 17.
3. On or before the seventh day after the date the child or parent changes residence (any place where the child lives or resides for a period of at least 30 days), the child or parent shall notify the Court of the current address in the manner directed by the Court.
4. Failure to provide notice is a Class C misdemeanor and may result in arrest.
5. The obligation to provide notice terminates on discharge and satisfaction of the judgment or final disposition not requiring a finding of guilt.
6. If an appellate Court accepts an appeal for a trial de novo, the child and parent shall provide the notice to the appellate Court.

CHANGES IN ADDRESS: Changes in the Defendant’s address shall be provided in writing to the Court by mail or in person.

QUESTIONS: For additional information about your obligation you may call or visit the Court.
